Infographic: Tourism Skills and Jobs [1]

TrainingAid's infographic, "Tourism Skills and Jobs," explores the learning and professional development needs, as well as perceived skill gaps in the tourism industry; provides examples of training and skills development opportunities currently available for tourism professionals; and identifies key challenges and needs for improving training programs and skills development opportunities.

For more information and the background of this infographic visit our Tourism Skills and Jobs [10] page.
Tourism Skills + Jobs
6 Key Findings On Skills Training For Tourism Industry Professionals

Tourism Professionals Value Online Learning
(But Their Employers May Not Know It)

Employers were asked:
Other than job-specific training, what types of skills development programs do you currently have in place?

19% Access to external online course
11% Custom online training and e-learning course
24% Opportunities to attend professional functions (e.g., conferences)
23% Custom in-person training courses and workshops
23% Access to external in-person training courses and workshops

Tourism employers have the opportunity to improve their training efforts by incorporating online learning tools.

Online Learning Habits of Tourism Professionals

And what are they learning?

54% have taken an online learning course

Tourism-Specific
- Hospitality
- Destination marketing
- Tour guiding

Broader Topics
- Business strategy
- Social entrepreneurship

Source URL: https://www.trainingaid.org/infographics/tourism-skills-and-jobs
Links