

Irene Lane ^[1]

Founder and President, Greenloons
Vienna, VA, USA

Irene Lane is a green travel expert who has written and spoken extensively about eco-certifications and how travelers can choose vacations that support communities socially, economically and environmentally. She is a featured writer for the Huffington Post and her blog articles and short pieces also have been published in other media outlets. Ms. Lane is the only person in the United States who can certify a green travel destination under the internationally-accredited Biosphere certification and she is the founder of Greenloons ^[2], which provides sustainable travel tips as well as a carefully curated collection of green travel experiences.
